

CENTENNIAL NUMBER PREMIUM LIST

Tenth Annual
Wright County Agricultural Fair
and Stock Show of Mansfield, Mo.

September 28, 29, 30, October 1, 1921

GENERAL RULES

1. Entries to all departments are open for premiums to residents of Wright, Douglas and Webster counties.
 2. Entries free to all competitors for premiums in all departments.
 3. All entries in all classes for premiums must be made before noon of second day and remain throughout the show. All committees must adhere strictly to this rule.
 4. To encourage new work, all exhibits in Classes J and K that have received first premium any previous year are barred. All entries in these classes must be the work of the exhibitor.
 5. All possible care will be taken to prevent accident or loss, but all exhibits will be at owners' risk.
 6. Superintendents of departments will be at the show room to assist exhibitors in placing their exhibits. Any exhibitor interfering with the superintendents or judges in the discharge of their duties will forfeit the premium.
 7. Blue ribbon denotes first premium; red ribbon, second premium.
 8. Any person having articles they desire to exhibit, not mentioned in premium list, may exhibit same and they will be passed upon by the judges and ribbons denoting first and second premiums attached, but no cash premiums will be given. Entries from outside Wright, Douglas and Webster counties are invited, but not for competition for premiums.
 9. All stand and ground rights will be in charge of the executive committee, and they will have the power to exclude any person or show that is objectionable and will charge and collect for all ground privileges. All applicants for ground rights or privileges correspond with this committee; 50 per cent of the concession fee must be paid in advance, balance payable third day of show.
 10. Superintendents of departments are not to be judges of same but are to have control of receiving and placing exhibits. Competent and disinterested parties will be selected as judges by heads of departments.
 11. Premiums not claimed within ten days after the close of the show will be forfeited. No premiums paid until one week after close of show.
- Executive Committee:
Dr. A. J. Clark, President.
A. C. Roy, First Vice-President.
J. E. Craig, Second Vice-President.
W. A. Black, Secretary.

PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

Why? Its perfect reproduction of the human voice, its noiseless movement, non scratching tones and the fact that you can play any disc record on it, are some of the reasons why you will ultimately choose a Brunswick.
